Administrative Procedure (AP) Manual

Procedure Name: Hours of Instruction and School Year Calendar

Procedure Type:	School Operations	Implementation Date:	NOV 10, 2010
Procedure Number:	4.11	Last Approval Date:	JUL 6, 2015
AP Owner:	Director of Education	Last Reviewed:	NOV 17, 2025
Legal Reference(s):	The Education Act, 1995, s. 163 The Education Regulations, 1999, s. 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23

Background

The school year and school day must be designed to maximize student learning. To facilitate busing and other shared services, schools will follow daily schedules and a Division-wide school year calendar. Subject to the provisions of the The Education Regulations, schools are responsible for developing daily schedules and reporting them to the director or designate. Furthermore, the director or designate is responsible for developing and recommending the school year calendar to the Board of Education (Board).

Scope

This procedure applies to all schools within the Living Sky School Division (LSKYSD).

Definitions

A school year must consist of at least:

- 950 hours of instructional time for Grades 1 to 12; and
- 475 hours of instructional time for kindergarten.

Instructional time is any time in which pupils of a school are in attendance and under teacher supervision for the purpose of receiving instruction in an educational program, including work-experience programs, parent-teacher-pupil conferences, examinations, and other learning activities provided by the Board.

Non-instructional time is any time:

- when pupils of a school are not in attendance but teachers are present at the school or at another site agreed to by the Board; or
- when teachers are present at the school and pupils of the school are in attendance at school but are not receiving instruction in an educational program.

A school day denotes not less than 5 hours of:

- instructional time;
- non-instructional time; or
- a combination of instructional time and non-instructional time.

Required breaks on days on which instruction is given to pupils must include:

- a recess period of 15 minutes, or break periods amounting to 15 minutes, in each of the morning and the afternoon; or
- a recess period or break periods amounting to 30 minutes.

Roles & Responsibilities
